Clinton, Okla., Sept. 30-A search that will cover the entire United States has been started for J. L. perintendents upon public schools in Hodges, who disappeared from his the counties are being received by farm north of Clinton on July 5, and so far as is known has not been seen nor heard from since. A few days before Mr. Hodges left, ostensibly for a short visit to New Mexico, the First National bank of Clinton made out to him a draft for several hundred dollars, which has never been returned for payment This fact, coupled with the belief that he had only a few dollars in cash at the time he obtained the draft, has led many to the belief that he uas met with foul play.

Before his departure Mr. Hodges left his livestock with an eighbor named Driscol, saying that he would be gone only a short time.
